are Lu Ann Davis and Paula Broadhead. He attended Central Elementary School and graduated from Wasatch High School. Basketball and tennis were his special interests as a youth. As a boy he fished and hunted with his father, beginning when he was six years old. While he was in high school he worked during three summers and after school at J.C. Penney Company under manager, Ted Zupan. Later he was employed for two years at Sprouse Reitz in Heber before going to work for Grand Central in Salt Lake City for seven years.

Brad married Robyn Schleuter and they moved into their new home in the Third Ward. A son, Joshua Lee, was born to this marriage. Brad and Robyn were subsequently divorced.

Karrie Lynn Farrer Simmons was born in Heber, July 9, 1962, the second child of Peggy Wade and Vance Farrer. Her brothers and sisters are Shalayne, Marsha, Wade and Justin. She was a student at Central Elementary and Wasatch High School. She enjoyed playing basketball and participating in 4 H Club. A particular delight to her was to assist her father when he shod horses. She worked at Pizza Hut for five years before and after her marriage to Brad Simmons September 17, 1982.

Two daughters, Brandi Lynn and Tiffany Ann, complete the Simmons family.

Brad has worked at Day's Market, Geneva Steel and Jack's Paint and Glass. He formed another glass company in Park City called Mountain City Glass. At present he is employed as a correctional officer in law enforcement under the Wasatch County Sheriff's Department which requires night as well as day work. His duties include dispatch work from central headquarters.

Since their marriage Karrie Lynn has done housekeeping work at condos in Park City. She is presently employed at the Mrs. Field's Cookie Company in Park City in the accounting department.

Karrie Lynn has been Camp and Athletic Director in the Young Women's Program, Nursery Leader in Primary and Relief Society Visiting Teacher. She is presently a teacher of the Sunbeams in Primary, a position she thoroughly enjoys. Brad and Karrie together taught the thirteen year old boys and girls in Sunday School. At present Brad is First Counselor in the Sunday School and a Home Teacher.
